

SmallRig

Adapter (for Sony FX30 FX3 X
LR Handle)

Operating Instruction

SmallRig Sony FX30/FX3 XLR Handle Adapter Plate MD4019 is designed to reinforce the stability of the Sony FX30/FX3 XLR Handle attached to the Alpha 7 IV and Alpha 7S III hot shoe. Mounts at the top of cage without interfering with mounting points beyond the top of the cage. Compatible with SmallRig Sony camera cage 3241, 3667, 2999, 3639, 3594.

Safety Guidelines

1. Environment

Do not use the product underwater, in extreme temperatures (e.g., freezing or direct heat), corrosive environments, or excessive dust. Dry metal parts immediately after liquid contact to prevent corrosion.

2. Load Capacity

Do not exceed the maximum weight capacity indicated on the product. Overloading risks structural failure, deformation, or accidental drops.

3. Cleaning & Maintenance

Clean surfaces with a dry, soft cloth. Avoid chemicals like alcohol or solvents. Ensure dry and ventilated conditions for long-term storage.

4. Structural Integrity

Do not modify the product (e.g., drilling, cutting)—this compromises structural integrity and increases drop risks.

5. Malfunctions

Stop use immediately if you notice deformation, unusual noises, or loose components, and contact support.
